

What is this Project about?

- We want to make services better for people with learning disabilities.

- We want to make sure health and social services work together better to support people with learning disabilities.

- The North Wales Learning Disability Strategy tells us how we will do this.

- We will work with citizens, carers, the Local Authorities, BCUHB, and voluntary organisations. Everyone will be included in the work the project does.

Meet the Team!

- There are 11 people in the team. They have all worked in lots of different kinds of jobs like Social Work, Nursing and Employment.

Where can you find us?

- The team are based in Ewloe but they will travel to meet people all over North Wales.

Who are the team? What will they be doing?

- Here are the names of all the team members and what they will be doing.

- Kathryn Whitfield is the team manager.

- Sian Croston will make sure staff know how to communicate well with people with learning disabilities and change services to make them easier to use

- Paul Mazurek will find ways to use technology like alarms and mobile phones to help people be more independent

- Kim Killow will make sure health and social care services work together to better support people with learning disabilities.

- Liana Duffy will work with the local community to make sure people with learning disabilities can access lots of different activities and meet new people if they want to.

- Steve Brown will work with other organisations to make we have the types of housing and support people need.

- Paul Hosker will work with the BCUHB to improve health services for people with learning disabilities.

- Jeni Andrews will link in with Denbighshire and Conwy Councils.

- Sioned Williams will link in with Gwynedd and Isle of Anglesey Councils.

- Mark John-Williams and Beverley Futia will link in with Wrexham and Flintshire Councils.

What have we done so far?

- We have given some money to each Local Authority Area Voluntary Council to help deliver the strategy.

- We have given some money to BCUHB to help deliver the strategy.

- The team are speaking to lots of people to pull an action plan together.

- We have appointed an organisation called IPC Oxford Brookes who will help us to stay on track.

- We are planning a launch day for the 14th June and everybody is welcome!
