

North Wales Together: Seamless Services for people with learning disabilities

Project Briefing – December 2019

- Hello from Kathryn Whitfield
- The project has been going for 6 months!
- We hope people will want to help us with the work we do

- You can follow us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/LDTransformationInfo

- You can follow us on Twitter at www.twitter.com/TogetherYnghyd

- Charlie is new to the team
- Charlie is helping us build our website
- The web address is www.northwalestogether.org
- We hope it will be ready for January 2020

- Paul Mazurek is looking at Technology that can help people live more independently
- We will be having a day to show technology that people can use
- We are hoping to set up a demonstration room at Wrexham
- Email Paul at Paul.Mazurek@flintshire.gov.uk if you want to know more

- Paul Hosker is working with the team in Health to try and make sure everyone has their annual health check
- Paul has been trying to help Doctors in Anglesey to make getting a health check easier
- Charlie is helping us design a website for health checks

- Sian has been working with citizens, families, carers and professionals to create shared values
- People told us
  - Treat me well
  - Let me be in charge of my own life
  - Help me be the best I can be
  - Always be honest
- You can email Sian.croston@flintshire.gov.uk if you want to learn more or tell her know what you think.

- In October we had some events

- We had an event on 4th October 2019
- The event was about Active Support
- Professor Sandy Toogood told us about an App he is developing
- People from Gwynedd told us about the work they have been doing
- Lots of people shared lots of really good information

- We had an event on Monday 14th October
- The event was for all people who provide support to people with Learning Disabilities, their families and carers
- People told us what they thought of our plan
- It was a great day. All the feedback from the day will be on our website in the new year www.northwalestogether.org

- We had an event on Thursday 17th October
- The event was about how we can help children and young people with a learning disability to achieve what matters to them
- Young people from the Denbighshire and Conwy Children and Adolescent Learning Disability Service (CALDS) planned the day with us
- We are writing a report about all the things people told us needed to change. We are going to send everyone the report.
- We will put the report on our website in the new year www.northwalestogether.org

- Measuring the Mountain is a project from Welsh Government
- It is about finding out what it is like to be a carer
- It helps the government to understand what things are really like
- If you want to share a story about being a carer you can email Katie Cooke
- Katie's email is Katie.cooke@southwales.ac.uk

- This is a picture of the team learning about Co-production
- Co-production is about everyone working together as equals
- In our team we are trying really hard to coproduce
- Mark in our team is really good at it!

- On Thursday 14th November 2019 the team attended the Learning Disability Wales conference
- Along with Michelle and James we did a group presentation all about the steps of coproduction

- Neil is our Project Sponsor
- Neil has worked with the team and lots of other people to agree what we should work on

- Neil is really excited to support the team as we head into the New Year.
- 2020 is going to be a really busy year
- If you want to get involved you can email us
- You can email us at Learning.disability.transformation@flintshire.gov.uk
